

Albuquerque, NM (Pitch Engine)December 21, 2011 Desert Health Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine Clinic, based in Albuquerque, New Mexico announces their donation of one $85 one-hour acupuncture treatment session to the 104.1 The Edge™Radio-thon, which was held on November 2, November 3, and November 4th. The 104.1 The Edge™ Radio-thon was a fund raiser held to support the Albuquerque Rescue Mission. The Albuquerque Rescue Mission has been helping the homeless in Albuquerque, New Mexico since 1954. The principal function of the Albuquerque Rescue Mission is to end the homelessness of the men, women, and children that come to the Mission on any given day. The 104.1 The Edge™ was rousing success. The dollars raised during this fund raiser will go a long way to helping support the Albuquerque Rescue Mission. States Dr. Abbey Theroux of Desert Health Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine Clinic, “When the opportunity came to us to donate our service as one of the auction items for this great cause supporting the Albuquerque Rescue Mission we were more than glad to be part of this event.” Homelessness is never easy for anyone. The fact that the Albuquerque Rescue Mission is in the Albuquerque community to help the folks they help is a real blessing to Albuquerque and a blessing for the people they come to help on a daily basis.
